Dear Camp Friends,

Camp is truly just around the corner now! Applications are coming in fast and furiously and some camps are beginning to fill up!

Camp staff are starting a serious training regiment of eating with no hands, frantically jumping up and singing in the middle of a meal, wearing nothing but tie-dye and costumes and practicing our ninja training skills for secret missions. We are starting to pull out the favourite sparkly spandex, sweep off the trampolines, fill the pool up and do whatever we can to camp look like home again!

We know that some of our campers have started a serious countdown to camp too! For the new campers, it is just 24 days until they make their way through the front gates of camp!!

The first camp session each summer is our NEW CAMPERS WEEKEND!!

This weekend camp is for kids who have never been to our program before or perhaps never been on a sleep-over before. If you know of anyone who is eligible for our program but has never attended - help us spread the word about camp!! Click here for more information
